

The Witch With No Name

The Story:

Once upon a time there was a witch who lost her name. Through her adventures she tries to discover what happened to her.

One morning she receives a parcel which she hopes will help her. It is the very last Kivoitou crystal ball.

Four ingredients for a magic potion appear in the crystal ball: the smell of mouldy sock, a giant nose hair, glow-worm juice and a concerto of bottom burps.

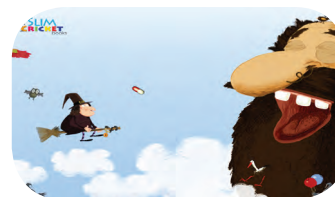

Intrigued, the witch sets off to search for the mysterious items accompanied by her faithful friend, Batina, a very affectionate little bat.

A mix of storytelling, animated cartoon and adventure game, "The Witch With No Name" leads you into a magical interactive world, where the final revelation will leave you speechless...

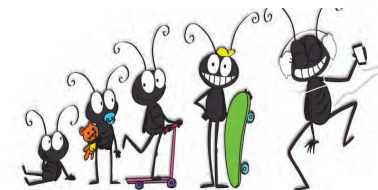

A subtle mix of storytelling and interactive games:

The use of the tablet's compass, camera and microphone brings originality to the e-book, while always serving the story.

With "The Witch With No Name", children can have fun with puzzles and object association games, while also stimulating their reflexes, sense of rhythm and memory.

Entertainment for all the family.

Available June 21st, 2012
Special launch price: 2.39 € (normally 3.99 €)

25 interactive pages

7 games

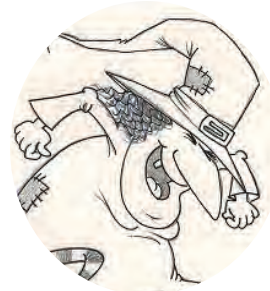

1 interactive ending

1 big surprise

Available in English and French

Average reading time: 30 minutes

Multiple difficulty levels

Look out for our next frozen and poetic adventure coming soon...

Useful info:

Website: <http://slimcricket.com>
 Contact: ygeffroy@slimcricket.com

